Action: Has James chased up with Hazel that all names are correct on mailing list?

Section updates

Emma has joined Monday cubs. Looking for additional leaders for Monday and Friday cubs.

Scouts: 70 scouts on books. 50-60 each Friday regularly attending. Quite a young troop atm. 8 leaders 4YLs , can take up to 6

All camps for next year are planned.

Gillian has been working on waiting list for scouts.

Sea Scouts: did very well at the Regatta and won all the sailing events. Maintenance on Rib has been completed.

Friday Cubs: 36 on books and attending regularly

Finance

£23179 balance. Still to pay: Capitation. Rent for halls

Gift Aid still seems low Lisa and Claire to look into.

Most subs are now in.

Action: need to revisit subs for next year at AGM. Need to revisit Allowances, are they enough?

Fundraising

Christmas fayre ; everything bought for that.

Exec looking for further fundraising ideas.

2019 is the 75th Anniversary of Scouting at Cramond so a camp is being planned for the whole group. Mike has suggested getting together with Scott Goddard and to invite him to the next meeting.

Leader Weekend at Canty Bay

Paul spoke about the leader weekend, light on numbers of leaders attending but was a good use of time, good talk from Nick Balchin about how to deal with challenging behaviour,- Graham to ask him about running further sessions.

Christmas Meal: on December 7th at Cramond Brig.

Next Meeting: February 22nd 7.30 at Church hall.
